Hi all,

To accompany this summer break, the equity4es group would like to recommend you a few readings, which may allow us to fuel new discussions and proposals for action in September:

* A short selection of books:

- Feminism is for everybody, a brief, accessible introduction to a popular theory of feminism,
  - The trouble with women, a book of cartoons about the story of women in history,
  - The dictionary of Lost Words, an historical fiction about the importance of words.
- Have a look at its trailer!

* A video:

"We should all be feminists", a TEDx talk by the writer Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. For those who prefer screens to pages.

* Some articles:

- "It's not about you": how to be a male ally, article in The Conversation,
  - "Why Women Stay Out of the Spotlight at Work", article in Harvard Business Review.
- For those in a hurry.

* Podcast:

- Woman's hour, a BBC podcast.
- Because it's more convenient when at the beach.

Have a good summer,
The Equity4es group
